IS APPOINTED
CITY ATTORNEY

RESIGNS AS MEMBER OF CITY
TRUSTEES' BOARD; CHOSEN
AS LEGAL COUNSEL

NAME NEW CHAIRMAN

TRUSTEE DWIGHT STEPHENSON
NAMED FOR PRESIDING
OFFICER OF BOARD

Hartley Shaw, member of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale and that body's presiding officer, resigned from both positions at the meeting of the trustees last night and was immediately and unanimously appointed as city attorney, effective January 1, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. E. Evans.

Dwight Stephenson, a member of the board of trustees, was unanimously elected as chairman of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Shaw. No action to do so was taken last night.

The trustees have the power to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the resignation of Mr. Shaw. No action to do so was taken last night.

When the resignation of Mr. Evans as city attorney was up for consideration by the board last night, Trustee Stephenson moved it be accepted and the motion prevailed.

Trustee Bartlett moved that a vote of thanks be tendered to Mr. Evans for his ten years' service to the city and regret expressed that his official connection with the city was about to be severed. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Evans expressed his thanks for the resolution and also stated that he was sorry, in one way, that his private practice had forced him to tender his resignation.

Not Leaving Glendale
"It is with regret that I give up my duties," said Mr. Evans, "for in the ten years I have served the city perfect harmony has prevailed between me and the various boards of trustees. I have had the united sup-

TRIP TO ORIENT

ALLEN ALDRICH IS HOME ON VISIT AFTER BIG TRIP; TO RETURN TO SEA

Allan Aldrich, former resident of Glendale, who sold his home here a year ago before taking an extended sea voyage, is back visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Theobald, 312 West Acacia.

Since leaving Glendale he has made a long trip to the Orient as chief steward on board the steamer "Hickston," visiting Honolulu, Cope, Singapore and the Philippine islands. While on his last trip to Alaska, he slipped on the wet deck, severely injuring his foot. While in Glendale he has been taking treatments for his injury at a hospital. He expects to be recovered sufficiently in a few weeks to return to the sea.

TRANSFERRED

BERT SHERWOOD IS NOW WITH PACIFIC FLEET; FURLOUGH
OF 30 DAYS ENDED

Bert Sherwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sherwood, 357 West Broadway, formerly of the Atlantic fleet stationed at Boston, has been transferred to the Pacific fleet and left yesterday for San Pedro, where he will be stationed from now on.

Mr. Sherwood was given a thirty-day leave, during which he visited with relatives and friends in Illinois and Indiana, reaching his home in Glendale in time for Christmas. His furlough ended yesterday.

DINNER IS GIVEN

MR. AND MRS. CHAS. SANDERS ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF
SEVERAL FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sanders, 1329 North Brand boulevard, entertained at dinner last evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cronin, William Viohl, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hearnshaw, Miss Marie Hearnshaw, Mrs. Kate Clotworthy and Miss Clara Ringert.

Decorations were of jasmine and narcissus. Following dinner a visit was made to the Palace Grand theatre.

ANNEX OR CANNOT USE SEWER, SAYS
L. A. COMMITTEE

The public welfare committee of the Los Angeles city council yesterday made a recommendation that communities outside the city be not allowed to share the benefits of the proposed $12,000,000 outfall sewer, unless they are willing to be annexed to Los Angeles.

The recommendation that this answer be given to Glendale, Burbank and other municipalities that have expressed a willingness to be connected with the new sewer if a bond issue for it is voted next spring has been approved by the city and county consolidation commission.

DINNER HOSTESS

MISS AGNES HARRISON GIVES FIVE-COURSE DINNER FOR
MR. AND MRS. PEIRCE

Miss Agnes Harrison, 214 East Chestnut street, was hostess today at an elegantly-appointed five-course dinner. Her guests of honor were Mrs. Ella M. Peirce and her son, John W. Peirce, of Chicago.

White roses and maidenhair ferns were used to carry out the green and white color scheme arranged by the hostess.

The affair was in the nature of a farewell to the Peirces, who are leaving on Sunday for San Diego and other southern California points of interest, before returning to their Eastern home.

The Peirces will be greatly missed by many Glendale friends, to whom they have endeared themselves by their gentle, kindly ways and their interesting personalities. It is hoped that they may eventually decide to make Glendale their permanent home.

This hope may perhaps be realized is shown by the fact that the Peirces, who are world travelers, pronounce Glendale the most beautiful home place they have ever visited. Both Mrs. Peirce and her son are enthusiastic "hikers" and there are no beauty spots hereabouts that they have not explored.

Mrs. Peirce is an accomplished musician; she was the founder of the famous St. Cecilia Society of Detroit, and she will be a decided acquisition to the musical coterie of Glendale, if she decides to make this city her permanent home.

PURCHASE HOME

ARRIVE IN CITY FOR WINTER, LIKE IT, BUY HOUSE AND SETTLE PERMANENTLY

Charles Reisner and wife came out in their machine from Springfield, Illinois, last month, intending to simply spend the winter, but they liked Glendale so well that they concluded to locate here permanently. They bought the Mahan place at 1133 North Louise and have moved in. They have had as holiday guests, Frank J. Baker and two children of San Francisco, who left for home this morning, and W. C. Reisner and wife, of Chicago, who will start on their return next Monday.

TURKEY DINNER

MR. AND MRS. S. HOUDYSHELL OF 308 NORTH ORANGE ARE
HOLIDAY HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. S. Houdyshel, 308 North Orange, entertained out-of-town relatives and friends Christmas day. A Christmas tree was enjoyed in the morning, followed by a turkey dinner at noon. The visitors were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Houdyshel and family of Los Angeles, H. D. Houdyshel of Newport Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris and Fred, Jr., of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher. Decorations were of Christmas bells and holly.

Move to Glendale

Mr. and Mrs. Wade A. Brown and little daughter, Janice, formerly of Hollywood, are new-comers in Glendale, having moved here only yesterday. They have sold their home in Hollywood and are now located on Loraine street, near Central.

No Paper New Year's

Complying with an established custom of The Evening News no paper will be issued from the office tomorrow, January 1.

TWO BUSINESS MEN ARE SHOT TO DEATH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 31.—W. C. Sly, president, and George Fanner, vice president of the W. W. Sly Manufacturing company, were shot to death by five automobile bandits here at noon today. The robbers escaped with the company payroll of $4500. Two automobiles were used by the bandits. One of these ran into a car containing Sly and Fanner. When the latter two scrambled from the wrecked car, the bandits shot them down without warning, seized the money and sped away in the remaining automobile.

HARDING FOR GRADUAL DISARMAMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MARION, O., Dec. 31.—Steps toward gradual disarmament will be taken by President-elect Harding early in his administration, according to authoritative information here today. One move may be a suggestion that world powers organize a disarmament congress to work out a scheme which will be generally acceptable.

NEW GOVERNMENT ORGANIZED IN FIUME

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
ROME, Dec. 31.—A new government supplanting that of Gabrielle D'Annunzio was organized in Fiume today. Legionnaires who comprised D'Annunzio's military forces are to be withdrawn shortly. It was semi-officially announced today that the poet will leave the city at the same time.

SECOND OPERATION FOR CHAMBERLAIN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Senator George Chamberlain was in a serious condition and will undergo a second operation today.

TEA IS GIVEN

MRS. LEVI CHUBBOCK HOSTESS
AT DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR
AT SUBURBAN HOME

One of the first of the monthly teas planned by the women of the First Congregational church was given at the suburban home of Mrs. Levi Chubcock, 1420 Valley View road, yesterday afternoon.

The fifty guests attending experienced the surprising and pleasing sensation of having been transferred from their modern surroundings to the hut of some Indian chieftain, as the Chubcock home contains countless novel and tastefully arranged Indian curios, picked up here and there by Mr. Chubcock during his many years of work among the Indians. The home was further made festive for the occasion by great boughs of pepper and eucalyptus.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Chubcock's house guests, Miss Julia Chubcock of San Diego, her niece, and Miss Annie E. Adams of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. E. L. Curtis and her mother, Madam Curtis of Hollywood.

Tea was served throughout the afternoon. Mrs. Harry Bullinger and Mrs. W. M. McKee assisted the hostess pour.

DAMAGE WALKS

HEAVY TRUCKS DRIVEN OVER
PAVEMENTS; INFORM POLICE
IS SUGGESTION MADE

Complaints are being received at the office of The Evening News that heavy trucks are being driven over the cement sidewalks in certain sections of the city with the result that the pavement is crushed.

Most of the complaints come from sections where new buildings are going up and it is presumed, trucks delivering material to the building sites are driven over the sidewalks without first putting down a protection.

It has been suggested that anyone witnessing the destruction of a walk by a truck immediately inform police headquarters, giving the truck's license number.

Party Much Enjoyed

A most enjoyable Christmas party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Seitz, 506 North Kenwood street, Christmas evening. The home was decorated in English holly and a brightly-lighted tree made festive the living room. Guests present were: Mrs. Frank Dean of Chicago and her two children Kathryn and Donald, Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Lawson and Miss Margaret Lawson of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Wade A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Whiting, and Gail Skinner of Hermosa Beach.

A light supper was served late in the evening. Open house had been held at the Seitz home all Christmas afternoon and many friends stopped in to share in the festivities.

COMES HOME FROM BERKELEY

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Carmack, of 111 South Jackson street, consider their Christmas a happy one, because Robert came home from Berkeley for the holidays.

ORDINANCE FOR STREET OPENING

IMPROVEMENT OF COMMERCIAL
TO BE ACTED UPON AT TRUSTEES' MEETING

COMES NEXT WEEK

FINAL PASSAGE TO RESULT
UNLESS BOARD MEMBERS
RECONSIDER VOTES

The ordinance ordering the opening and improvement of Commercial street was very briefly considered by the board of city trustees in session last night and, unless there is a change in action, it will come up at the next meeting for final passage.

The ordinance was presented to the board by Trustee Bartlett and there was practically no discussion relative to it. The discussion, if any, is expected at the next meeting, when the measure is to be voted upon.

According to statements of city officials, the board has acquired jurisdiction over the proposed work and the time for a legal protest expired some weeks ago. However, it is pointed out that if a majority of the board votes against the ordinance, the proposed improvement cannot be made as contemplated.

At a previous meeting, the measure was passed, with Trustee Stephenson voting against it. And, it is pointed out, the measure will pass when next considered unless other members of the board change their attitude concerning it.

Opposition Is Organized

Those living in the contemplated assessment district opposed to the opening of the street have organized to prevent, if possible, the work from being done as outlined. It is stated that, if the ordinance is passed, legal steps may be taken to prevent the city from carrying out the proposed plans.

A majority of the business men of the city, according to a petition on file with the city clerk, are in favor of the street opening.

GREET PASTOR

INFORMAL RECEPTION TO BE HELD TONIGHT IN HONOR OF REV. H. C. FUNK

Members and friends of the Lutheran church have arranged an informal reception at the parsonage, 111 East Harvard street, for this evening in honor of their new pastor, Rev. H. C. Funk, Ph. D., N. D.

All Glendale citizens, whether members of the church or not, are cordially invited to meet Dr. Funk, and to enjoy the informal entertainment incident to the passing of the old year and the welcoming of the new year.

Dr. Funk has recently accepted a call to the First Lutheran church of Glendale and will begin his pastorate with the New Year. He has been for more than five years superintendent of missions for the synod of California. His address for the beginning of his pastorate here will be given on Sunday at the 11 o'clock service and his subject will be "A New Year's Resolution."

BIRTHDAY PARTY

RALPH HUTCHISON IS HONOR
GUEST AT DINNER BEHALF OF ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, 246 North Orange street, entertained last evening at a five-course dinner in celebration of her son Ralph's eighteenth birthday. The guests were classmates from the University of California, Clayton Card of Burlington, Ia., who was a last year's graduate from Glendale union high school, and Robert Pottenger, a freshman at Princeton. The evening was spent at cards and games.

Private Watch Party

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Whiting, 512 North Kenwood street, are entertaining a number of friends at a private watch party this evening. The guests will be: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Seitz, Mr. and Mrs. Wade A. Brown and daughter Janice, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Bates of Los Angeles, Mrs. Annie McFarland, and Dr. Max Anderson of Natchez, Miss.

WEATHER FORECAST*

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 31.—The official weather forecast: Fair tonight and Saturday. Heavy frost in interior in morning.

PERMITS FOR DECEMBER BUILDING
IN GLENDALE EXCEED $150,000
AND PASS $3,000,000 FOR YEAR

Total of 791 New Residences Are Constructed in 1920, Also Three Large Bungalow Courts; City
Holds World's Record, Figures Show

Up to noon today the December building permits totalled $154,171 in valuation. Fifty-two of the 110 permits were for places of residence. This is certainly a wonderful record for Glendale in building and shows that our beautiful city's popularity with newcomers to the Southland is not waning. The additions to the high school group account for $40,000 worth of the permit valuation. The Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company took out a permit for a $3000 office building for their big new yards at 460 West Los Feliz Road, the city of Glendale is building a $2000 addition to its pumping plant on the San Fernando Road, and the Glendale Lumber company, a new concern, is building offices and sheds to cost $2000 at 310 North San Fernando Road.

Glendale's building record for 1920 is $3,136,089 up to noon today, as compared with $587,015 for 1919, which is certainly a wonderful showing for a city of 15,000 to 20,000 population. The record by months is as follows:

JANUARY	JULY
$155,531	$302,970
In January the permits totaled $155,531; number of residences, 41; business buildings, Glendale Evening News office, $14,000; Fox-Woodsum Co. lumber sheds, $3,000; Bentley-Schoeneman Co., brick office building at 208 E. Broadway, $1,000; Standard Oil Co., service station, corner Kenwood and Broadway, $1,000; Edwards & Wilsey Co., real estate office building at 139 N. Brand Blvd., $5,000. The old M. E. church building at Wilson avenue and Dayton Court, was wrecked to make room for residences, by C. A. Lesard.	July went June $100,000 better with the astounding total of $302,970. There were 75 residences called for; also the Davis-Glendale Co.'s first unit of the great green-house plant in the Grand View district, $20,000; the Goddard store building at 123-125 South Maryland avenue, now occupied by a candy factory, $10,000; the 8-room addition to Thornycroft Sanitarium, $8,000; Bentley-Schoeneman Co.'s planing mill at 460 West Los Feliz Road, $2,000; Finch Bros., grocery store building at 1200 South Glendale avenue, $1,500.

FEBRUARY	AUGUST
$144,715	$517,278
February followed January's total very closely with $144,715 in permits. There were 41 residences started; the L. A. Basket factory commenced its $10,000 concrete and brick addition at Los Angeles street and Cypress avenue; the Glendale Sanitarium began a $1,000 addition to its emergency hospital.	August was the banner month, however, with a total of $517,278. The Glendale Research hospital, just above Piedmont Park, accounted for $66,000 of this great sum, the Intermediate school additions for $25,000, Babcock & Weeks' bungalow court at 609-615 North Brand for $20,000, E. K. Daniels' brick business building at 217 South Brand for $2,500 and an addition to the Seventh-day Adventist school building for $500, while there were 121 residences started.

MARCH	SEPTEMBER
$282,872	$486,767
March's record was $282,872, the highest yet, but only 24 residences were started. This month was notable for large permits. The Broadway school building called for an expenditure of $78,360; the Glendale Theatre, $60,000; Young & Baird's bungalow court on North Orange, $37,000; the Borthick & Daniels block at 222 to 226 South Brand, $20,000; Lang's double brick store room at 129-131 South Central, $7,712; Bentley-Schoeneman Co.'s office building at 210-212 East Broadway, $3,500; L. Richbart's garage building at 107 West Harvard, $3,000; W. W. McElroy's addition to the restaurant building at 111 South Brand, $1,000.	September kept up the good work with $486,767, and the residence total was 150. The largest permit called for $15,000 for the remodeling of John Robert White's residence building at 347 North Orange, which was greatly damaged by fire last Decoration day.

PRETTY CALENDAR

FIRST NATIONAL BANK GIVES
FRIENDS AND PATRONS
VERY PLEASING ONES TO

The First National Bank is distributing to its patrons some very pretty calendars with a colored view of what appears to be a mountain road in southern California in winter.

During the last fiscal year the mints established a record in coinage, when a total of $89,500,000 coins were executed. This is an increase of 446 per cent in coinage.

Now that hair would be some protection to the ears it would be just like the girls to abandon the style.

GIVES PARABLE

REV. W. E. EDMONDS TALKS ON CLOSING YEAR AND ABOUT ONE FORTHCOMING

"What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits toward me?
I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all the people."
(Ps. 116:12-14.)

These words formed the subject of the morning sermon at the Presbyterian church by Rev. W. E. Edmonds of which a brief resume follows:

At the close of the year it is time for serious thoughts. It is eminently fitting that we should remind ourselves of all the mercies that have been showered upon us.

In a parable, we are facing a worn patriarch, the Old Year. He is lying in a secluded spot away from the tides of life, beneath the autumn trees. The valley was thronged with a great spirit multitude. The four seasons were there, the twelve months, the fifty-two weeks, the 365 days; all the hours and the minutes and the seconds—all these garbed in a wondrous variety of garments and adornments.

The pale patriarch summoned a minister into his presence. "I have called you for your sake and for those to whom you minister. Give them this, my last and most solemn message. My work is done. Before I go I must remind you of the goodness of God. My office has been one of ceaseless love. Those around me are my children and faithful servants. Ere I die I will question them:
You must report their words to your congregation in the sanctuary. "Seasons, what have you given to man?"
The four seasons answered, "God's benefits." To the twelve months,
"What have you given?" "God's benefits." And so with the weeks, the days, and the hours and minutes and seconds; all had given God's benefits. Then Father Time said:
"Servant of God, you have heard these; I confirm them. Through the whole year they have been busy distributing God's benefits. Tell your congregation you have seen the dying year. Tell them they, too, must die, but tell them God's benefits do not end with death, they commence on earth only to multiply in Heaven."

Scroll Full of Messages

As the Old Year passes out into eternity he draws out a scroll full of messages, addressed to each one of this congregation, young and old; at the top of every one are these words,
"The Lord's benefits toward me." In the hand of each one of us is the list.
First are physical benefits. Others have been cut down by death or suffering. There is a multitude of blind.
There are other multitudes of the mentally deficient and the insane.
We are living in rapid days, and many are breaking, unable to stand up against the strain of living without God. Again, what shall I render for family benefits? Not in every home is safety, clothing, warmth, food. India has had sixteen famines in twenty-five years, and 20,000,000 have starved to death. Millions in India and China never know a full meal.

There have been, too, some business benefits. Many have prospered as never before. It is God who gives power to get wealth. And there have been civil benefits. It is worth something to live in a country like this.
We are heirs of liberty. There are spiritual benefits. The lifting of our spiritual debt has made us heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ.
What shall I render unto the Lord for His disciplinary benefits? Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth;
weakness, sickness, failing business,
misunderstanding, unkindly treatment; some, their hearts are in the glory, gone out with a friend. But how much we have left—peace and joy in the Holy Ghost.

New Year in Perfection

Now, in view of all this, what shall I render? David said, "I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord." In the cup is suggested the blood of sacrifice for our personal salvation, our only way to God. "And I will pay my vows unto the Lord now, in the presence of all His people."

The New Year stands in angelic beauty and perfection here before us, saying, "I am here to deliver a promise; a continuance of God's benefits to those who shall honor His cause.
I am here also to say, if during all my term you would have every month, week, day, moment, bless you, you must pay your vows. It is not mine to make special promises;
but whatever comes, nothing shall separate you from the love of God in Christ Jesus. All things work together for good to them that love God."

Another form stands here today, saying, "Peace be unto you." "Where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them."

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ rest upon you through all the months, weeks, days, moments of the New Year. But they are ours only as we make our vows to the name of the Lord.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Some innate quality seems to urge us at the close of each year to review the past months, determine wherein we have failed and what we have gained and in the light of our past experiences make plans and resolutions for the New Year.

It is a good thing to take stock of ourselves annually and profit by the past.

As we review the past year we are naturally gratified that we have had the best business in the lifetime of our store.

And we take this means of thanking those who have made it possible, not forgetting any who have stood so loyally by us during the years.

We thank you for all past favors, we hope to serve you better in the coming year, and we wish you

STREET PROTEST

H. M. BUTTS WRITES ABOUT PROPOSED OPENING OF
COMMERCIAL STREET

Editor The Evening News:—How true it is "There's many a slip 'twixt cup and lip," and Commercial street seems to form no exception to the rule. A few weeks ago the ordinance ordering the work in was unexpectedly rushed through the council by means of petition and exhortation and all was apparently over, with the exception of whatever legal battle there might arise to determine as to whether or no those to be assessed have any say in the matter. Now all is changed once more. Some flaw in the ordinance annuls the latest decision and all must be done over. So be it. Perhaps the next time the protest carrying some 300 names, besides a formal notice of objection of over 100 property owners who would be called upon to bear the burden of assessment and who do not believe in the utility of the proposed street, will not be so unwisely and unjustly ignored and over-ridden.

I say "unwisely and unjustly" advisedly. It is, according to my perception, manifestly unwise for the city officials to disregard the wishes of hundreds of property owners, many of whom may even now be burdened to the limit in an effort to clear their homes.

It is unjust, as I view it, that one group should be assessed against their will, that another group may be benefited. And let me here state that of the hundred or so signers of the so-called business men's petition which, together with the delegation that presented it, succeeded in stampeding some of our worthy trustees (Stephenson not included), but a scarce 15 per cent of them, it appears, would come under the assessment as property owners, the balance being renters.

Says Deduction Is Clear

I wish to again refer to the unwisdom, as I see it, of the city officials needlessly displeasing a large group of our citizens. The city is even now being asked to take considerable sums of money to be expended under the direction of pretty much the same officials who now favor the opening of Commercial street. Therefore, the deduction is clear that many of those who oppose its opening and who do so through a sense of a lack of confidence in the wisdom and justice of the proposition, are more than liable to lack confidence in other more worthy propositions and vote against them.

Now, as to the merits of the case, which, I believe, all fair-minded citizens will agree, should decide every issue. In the first place I hold that the proposed street is entirely unnecessary and will do no more toward steering south bound traffic into Glendale than would the natural prolongations to San Fernando road of the several streets lying north of Broadway, once these streets together with West Broadway were duly paved. California and Wilson are fine streets reaching straight through to Brand, California crossing Brand at the upper end of our completed pavement and at the very northern limit of our present business district.

I believe I am safe in saying that the improvement as just indicated would have the unqualified approval and the unanimous support of the residents of the west side. They and the people of Glendale in general have long wished that West Broadway could be completed and made attractive enough—at its entrance at least—to merit the electric sign that is there today.

Few there are who can be made to believe that it is wise to cut a diagonal street 120 feet wide, or any width for that matter, across the west end of our city for the purpose intended. No one appreciates more than I the desirability of using every reasonable means for attracting auto tourists to and through our city, but let it be done in such a way that the greatest results will be obtained at the least expense and with the greatest harmony.

Would Get Quick Results

Broadway could be completed in comparatively short time and we would get immediate results. No one of those pulling so hard for Commercial street can possibly be more interested in results than I, for the firm of which I am a member is vitally interested in everything automobile.

With West Broadway improved and an auto park secured where tourists may camp, we will have gone a long way toward putting Glendale "on the map." Our neighbor, Burbank, is awake to this necessary feature and will soon have a camping place. Why are we so slow? Let us do the first thing first.

I look forward to seeing the proposed Patterson avenue extension a reality, for, unquestionably, the bend in San Fernando road at the pumping plant is the logical entrance to Glendale from that direction and, to my mind, should be made the main thoroughfare. Instead, however, of trying to carry this thoroughfare through to Brand, via Patterson, with its pronounced jog at one point and expensive condemnation requirements between Central and Brand, I would turn south on Kenilworth at the corner of the new park. Kenilworth can easily be carried through as wide as necessary and would intersect all streets as far south as Broadway. Such a street properly engineered and properly taken care

CITY CHARTER

DRAFT IS ABOUT READY FOR SUBMISSION TO MEMBERS
BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS

A tentative charter for the city of Glendale will be submitted to the board of freeholders by the charter drafting committee within a day or two, it is announced, and at the same time the board will be called to a meeting to consider the draft and to suggest changes, if any are to be made.

The drafting committee has written and re-written the proposed charter, following out suggestions made by the members of the board, and the completed draft is now ready for submission and consideration.

It may be that there will be changes made in the committee's draft and if so these changes, it is explained, can be made and then the finished charter written and filed with the city clerk.

Each Member to Get Copy

The plan of the board, it is explained, is to have the charter acted upon by the voters and ratified—if it is adopted—at the coming session of the state legislature.

To carry out this plan, it will be necessary, it is stated, to have the completed charter filed with the city clerk soon after the first of the year.

In order that each member of the board may have time to study the draft, a complete copy will be delivered to every member, by direction of Bert P. Woodard, chairman of the board.

GLENDALE VULCANIZING PLANT WILL MOVE ONE DOOR TO SOUTH ON SATURDAY

Tomorrow the Glendale Vulcanizing Plant, 141 South Brand avenue, will move one door south into the large room now occupied by Hagood's auto agency for the Stephens car. Mr. Hagood will become connected with the Stephens agency in Los Angeles. When asked if he would retain his residence in Glendale, he replied:

"Of course I will; do I look as though I had become daffy enough to move from Glendale into Los Angeles?"

The Wm. A. Pfeiffer bicycle shop, now located at 108 West Broadway, will move into the premises being vacated by the vulcanizing plant.

The world seems to be getting better in spots in spite of the efforts of a lot of persons to muss things up.

of would prove one of Glendale's greatest assets.

Must Have Fine Entrance

The obvious fact remains that we must have at the earliest possible moment an attractive entrance to our city from the west. Should the council again pass the Commercial street ordinance, it is more than likely that the opposition will take legal steps to prevent its enforcement. Should this occur, it is probable nothing would be done with Broadway for some time to come and we would be obliged to forego the much-needed opening of Glendale to the west and north.

These views and criticisms I have given for what they are worth. I have given them in the spirit of wishing to help rather than hinder. I have given them as an interested citizen, as a business man and a property owner. And I have given them in the hope that the members of our city council will not ratify a new Commercial street ordinance, but will, instead, proceed with the immediate improvement of West Broadway and the acquisition of an auto park for the time being and, later, the rest.

Yours for rational, steady progress consistent with wise economy in municipal matters.

H. M. BUTTS,
121 South Brand.

port of each board. I have tried to do what was right. I have made mistakes in the years of my service, but at all times my every action was guided for the best interest of the city. I have tried to give the best that was in me. While I am leaving the official family, I am not leaving Glendale; I expect to make my home here for all time. And I stand ready to give any service to the city that is within my power."

City Clerk Sherer told of his first introduction to Mr. Evans ten years ago and expressed his regret he was resigning.

Chairman Shaw Resigns

Immediately afterward, Chairman Shaw's written resignation as chairman of the board was read, effective immediately, and upon motion of Trustee Henry was accepted.

Trustee Henry then moved that Trustee Stephenson be elected chairman of the board and the motion prevailed.

Chairman Stephenson then took his place as presiding officer and briefly expressed his appreciation of the honor accorded him and, further, stated that he hoped he might preside as well and as impartially as had Mr. Shaw.

Then the resignation of Mr. Shaw as trustee was read, effective immediately, and accepted. On motion of Trustee Henry, seconded by Trustee Robinson, Mr. Shaw was appointed as city attorney.

Mr. Shaw expressed his thanks for the honor accorded him and stated that he was sure that he and the board would work in harmony and for the best interests of the city.

Applications Are Filed

Previously during the meeting, applications for appointment as city attorney were received from Bert P. Woodward, Owen Emery and William T. Darch. The last named is a comparatively recent arrival in Glendale, having purchased a home here. He was formerly a prosecuting attorney in the state of Washington and also a judge of the superior court at Glendale, Wash.

After the adjournment of the trustees' meeting, both Mr. Shaw and Mr. Stephenson were congratulated by those present upon their respective appointments.

Various pending legal matters in the hands of Mr. Evans, relative to city affairs, will be turned over by him to Mr. Shaw, as the latter's appointment becomes effective January 1.

Mr. Evans had prepared an ordinance relative to the proposed bond issues for a civic center and water system improvements, but in view of the fact that legal matters that follow relating to both issues will be in the hands of Mr. Shaw, he did not present the ordinance last night, stating that he considered it proper that his successor should have the right to carry the proceedings from the beginning. Therefore, the date of the proposed special election was not considered by the trustees last night.

LECTURE SERIES

TANNER & HALL TO BE HOSTS
AT DEMONSTRATIONS NEXT
WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY

Alvin E. Sanders, who was an instructor for the government in the aviation engine department, is to give a series of lectures for Tanner & Hall, the first two to be on Wednesday and Friday night of next week at the Buick salesroom, 237 South Brand boulevard.

Practical demonstrations will accompany these lectures. Every automobile owner will find it profitable to attend this series, for it will help them to understand the mechanism of their engines. Some of the information you will get will surprise you; for instance, the common theory that the motor engine is moved by explosion will be proven erroneous to your satisfaction. The lectures will apply to all motor engines, and everyone interested in automobiles should attend them. They will be free to the public.

ROY L. KENT CO.

CONCERN WILL MOVE INTO ITS
NEW QUARTERS, 130 SOUTH
BRAND BOULEVARD

Preparations are being made by the Roy L. Kent company, contractors and construction engineers, to move into its new quarters at 130 South Brand boulevard, just across the street from its present location.

The new home of the Roy L. Kent company is in the attractive Goodno building and the concern is having its quarters most conveniently arranged. There will be in front a general office and reception room. Then comes the private office of Mr. Kent, followed by the real estate department and, finally, the drafting room. The various departments will be divided by partitions and the general appearance will be unusually effective, as well as making for efficiency.

The company's mill, located on San Fernando road and operated under the name of the Kent Lumber & Supply company, is ready for operation and the spur track is being installed.

Established in 1910, the company has steadily progressed, has participated largely in Glendale's building program and has invested large sums of money of its own in the city.

Competent Men in Charge

The Roy L. Kent company is prepared to meet any demand in construction work, from a very modest structure to a large building. Each department is in charge of competent men and full efficiency is the result.

The company is planning to occupy its new home on January 1 and to that end a force of men is today putting the finishing touches on the attractive quarters at 130 South Brand boulevard.

"We expect to be in our new home by Saturday," said Roy L. Kent to The Evening News today. "Our mill is now in operation and we are prepared to meet the demands for lumber and all building materials. We have done work for a splendid class of people during the year just closing and, as the new year draws near, may we not wish that Glendale continues to grow in 1921 as it has in 1920? Certainly our population has been increased by a fine set of new people; may the same hold true for the year just coming in."

November was a little ahead of the previous month with a total of $333,141, and the residences numbered 117. The F. E. Meneley Co. took out permits for a factory building, $13,500; a warehouse, $1,000, and an office and storeroom, $1,000, all located at Vine avenue and S. P. tracks. The Harrower Laboratory at 920 East Broadway called for $8,500. Mrs. J. B. DECEMBER

$152,321

At noon today the December total reached $152,321. There were 110 permits issued, 52 being for places of residence. The largest permit was for $40,000 for additions to the high school.

Permits were taken out during the year for 791 residences and for three large bungalow courts which will accommodate 38 families. While the new city directory, soon to be issued, lists quite a number of residences as vacant, in every case it is either for repairs to be made or because the place is to be sold. Every one of these could be occupied at once if their owners would permit.

Glendale has the proud record of having done more building for its size during the past year than any other city in the world.

LET US PROVE IT

BARTON BROS.

212 W. Broadway

LOCKING THE CAR

Many modern cars are fitted with a battery ignition system, in which the distributor arm is removable. By removing this arm the car owner makes it possible to steal his vehicle only by towing it away or by fitting another distributor arm. The arm may be removed simply by unclipping the distributor cover to which the wires are attached. It usually happens that there is only one way in which this arm will fit, so that there need be no worry about replacement.

THIS VAN NEVER STOPS

A modern moving van of a special enclosed body, mounted on a 3-3 1/2-ton chassis, which is used almost exclusively for long hauls between Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, carries complete furnishings of a six-room house—1000 cubic feet of cargo space being available. The monster motor truck is fitted with sleeping quarters for three men, which enables one man to drive while the others sleep.

GLENDALE SECURES MORE ADVERTISING

NAME OF THIS CITY IS BEING LINKED WITH SOME OF LEADING COMMUNITIES

The name of Glendale is becoming associated with those of some of the leading cities of the country, as the following will show. Glendale has claim to distinction in other ways than through the fact that it is the fastest-growing city in the United States.

C. E. Neale, of Neale & Gregg, received from his mother a copy of the Trenton, New Jersey, Times-Advertiser, of a recent date, in which appeared the following article:

"Ten thousand cars and trucks are serving American city governments, according to figures compiled by the National Auto Chamber of Commerce.

"Motor equipment is being increasingly provided for health, police, school and other municipal departments," says a statement issued by the chamber. "Government efficiency is thereby doubled in certain lines of work, according to the street commissioner of Buffalo. R. B. Rankin, municipal librarian of New York, reports a total of 295 passenger cars and 438 trucks in use by thirteen departments of the metropolis."

Cities Well Motorized

"Los Angeles leads the list of cities owning cars with a total of 370. In this respect she is the banner city of the banner state. San Francisco boasts 104, Oakland 76, Pasadena 37, Glendale 19.

NEW PLAN THWARTS THIEVES

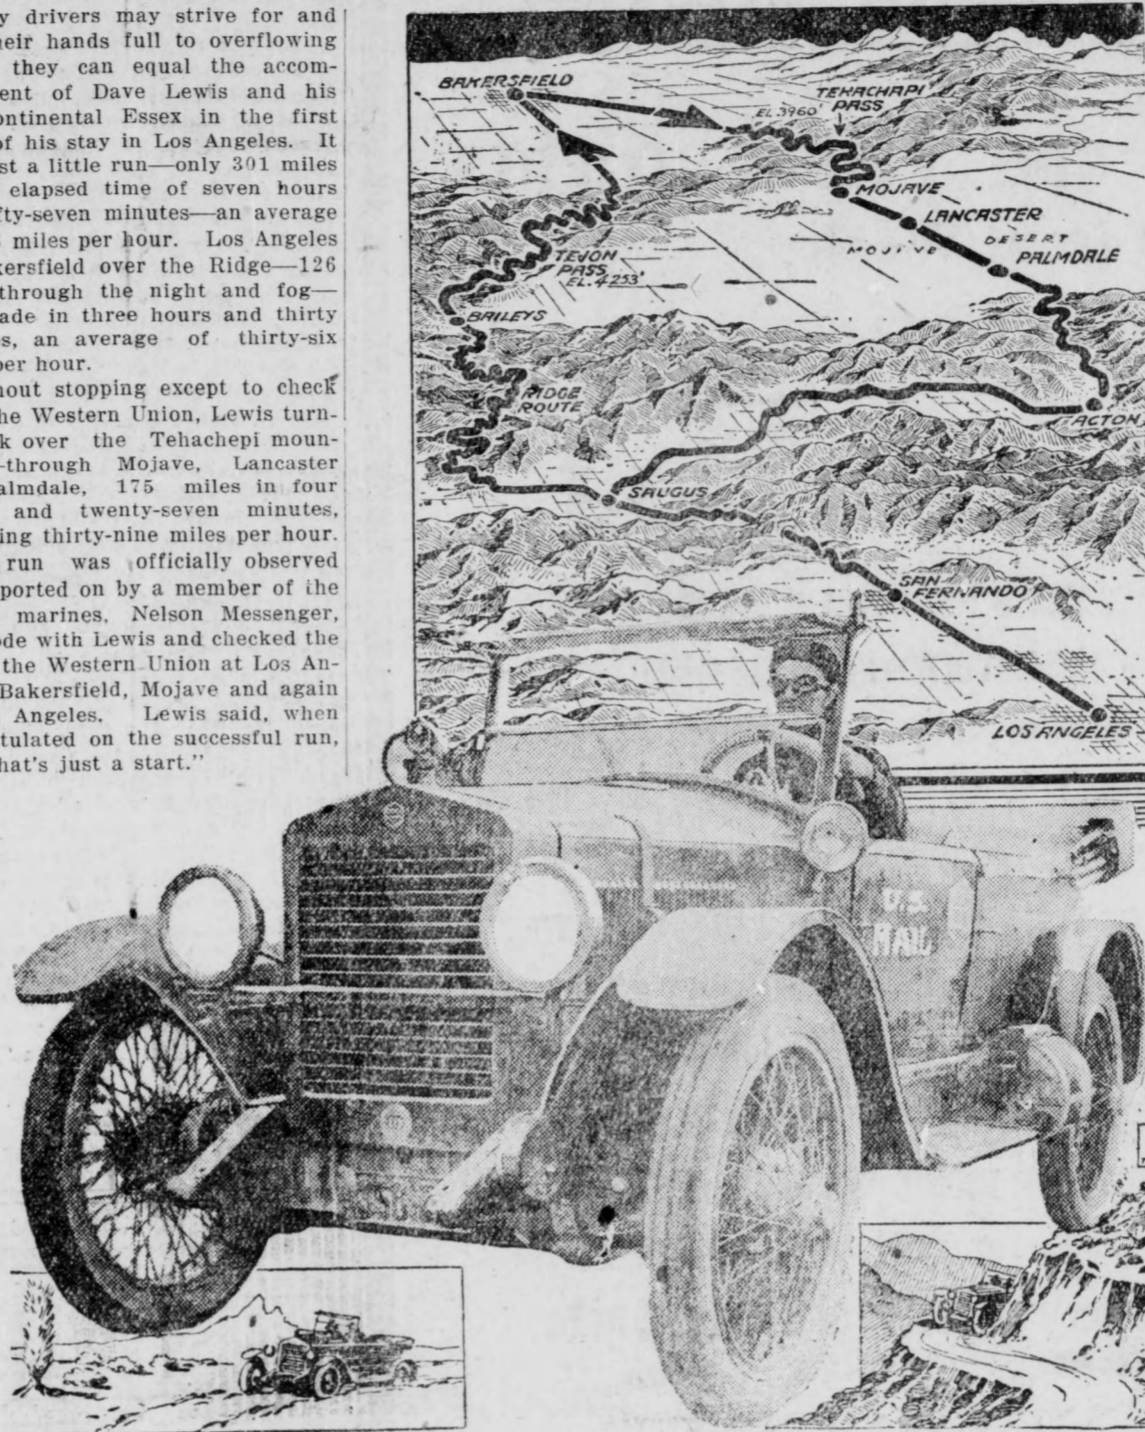

A new telephone and telegraph system, designed primarily to check automobile thieving, is now in process of installation in Maryland. When completed, it is stated, the system will render Maryland absolutely immune from this form of bandit. In every town, hamlet or city throughout the state call boxes are being erected which will be in direct connection with the main office in Baltimore.

SUCCESSFUL RUN IS MADE BY ESSEX CAR

Many drivers may strive for and find their hands full to overflowing before they can equal the accomplishment of Dave Lewis and his transcontinental Essex in the first week of his stay in Los Angeles. It was just a little run—only 301 miles in the elapsed time of seven hours and thirty-seven minutes—an average of 37.6 miles per hour. Los Angeles to Bakersfield over the Ridge—126 miles through the night and fog—was made in three hours and thirty minutes, an average of thirty-six miles per hour.

Without stopping except to check in at the Western Union, Lewis turned back over the Tehachapi mountains—through Mojave, Lancaster and Palmdale, 175 miles in four hours and twenty-seven minutes, averaging thirty-nine miles per hour.

The run was officially observed and reported on by a member of the U. S. marines, Nelson Messenger, who rode with Lewis and checked the car at the Western Union at Los Angeles, Bakersfield, Mojave and again at Los Angeles. Lewis said, when congratulated on the successful run, "Oh, that's just a start."

THREE YEARS FOR PLANNING MOTOR

MILLIONS ARE SPENT FOR BRINGING OUT LIGHT 6 BY STUDEBAKER CO.

There are few people who realize the work that bringing out a new automobile entails. When the average motorist reads the announcement of a new motor car he seldom gives it a second thought. If he is interested in that particular make of car he may be more or less enthusiastic about the new arrival. But there's probably not one person in 10,000 who knows the labor, planning and sweating that goes into an automobile before it is allowed to get out in the public view.

Three years ago the Studebaker corporation started work on a small six-cylinder car. One model was constructed by hand and sent out on the road. It was driven across the continent and pounded over many mountain roads in California.

Sent to Various Sections

It returned to the factory and the engineering staff took a look at it. A few months later 100 similar cars were turned out, much of the work being done by hand, as the necessary machinery had not been installed. These machines were sent out to various parts of the country for the most strenuous sort of tests and a careful check was kept on their performance.

It is estimated that the first 100 cars cost the Studebaker factory $10,000 apiece. While these high-priced beginners were being tested the Studebaker corporation was busy erecting a new plant for the manufacture of this product. Millions of dollars were spent in bringing out this Studebaker "light six" and more millions in the plant to build it. The car was recently put on the market and was very favorably received here. Packer & White, the local Studebaker distributors, have sold a good many of the light sixes.

AUTO NOTES OF INTEREST

During the first eight months of 1920 the total number of automobiles either shipped or driven away from 124 motor car manufacturers was 1,079,067.

There were fewer motorists killed at grade crossings in South Dakota last year in proportion to the number of machines registered than in any other state.

The French Grand Prix automobile race will be held in Alsace, near Strasbourg, during the summer of 1921. It is the first big post-war speed contest to be held in Europe. All owners of motor vehicles should have their own secret identification marks affixed to some part of the car. These may prove a valuable help in case the machine is stolen.

In Pennsylvania out of more than 22,000 complaints reported and investigated by the state highway inspectors and private parties only eighty automobile licenses were revoked.

The first good roads legislation in the United States was enacted in Virginia by the House of Burgesses in 1632.

OLDSMOBILE GIVES RIDING COMFORTS

FIVE PASSENGER CAR PROVES VERY POPULAR; LEG ROOM IS DECIDED FACTOR

Next to its satisfying performance, perhaps the most notable feature of the five-passenger Oldsmobile is its remarkable riding comfort. It is very roomy. In both the front seat and in the tonneau there is ample leg room—a decided factor to those who have experienced the discomforts of riding in cramped quarters. This touring model is best characterized as a family car; women like to drive it, not only because it is very easy to handle, but because of its genuine dependability.

For business or professional use, this Oldsmobile roadster is ideal. It is businesslike in the extreme—trim, compact—it suggests efficiency. Salesmen, especially, are interested in the liberal, completely concealed carrying space provided in the rear compartment.

This model also finds great favor with families of two. For every day use the two-seated vehicle is, of course, exactly what they want. But when occasionally they wish to take friends with them, merely raising the rear cover adds two roomy, comfortable seats.

ALUMINUM PISTONS.

Thousands of cars of today are fitted with aluminum pistons and in many of them the fitting of these parts is incorrect, causing the owner to form the opinion that aluminum is unsatisfactory as a piston material. This is an erroneous idea, as aluminum pistons when properly fitted give much better results than iron ones. One of the common troubles with aluminum pistons is a slapping which occurs when the engine is first started and continues until it is warmed up. To cure this some owners employ a heavier oil, but the trouble with this plan is that the heavy lubricant is not of the body that gives satisfactory results after the engine has warmed up thoroughly.

A double safety signal for automobiles, which indicates to pedestrians in front and the driver of a car in the rear just what the driver of a car equipped with the new device intends to do, is a recent development, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine. The device consists of a box mounted on top of the left rear fender, where it can be seen from both front and rear.

LOS ANGELES AMONG BEST, SAYS OFFICER

AUTO LAWS ARE ENFORCED IN GOOD WAY; SACRAMENTO IS ONE OF WORST, CLAIM

Los Angeles is one of the best-governed cities in California, in so far as the enforcement of the state motor vehicle act is concerned, while Sacramento is one of the worst. This was the opinion expressed by Charles J. Chenu, superintendent of the State Motor Vehicle department, upon his return to Sacramento from an inspection trip to Fresno, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Denmark is reported to be an ideal land for automobiles, the roads being good, the land quite flat and the country interesting and attractive for tourists.

WOMEN ASSIST IN GOOD ROADS MOVE

HUGE SUM OF MONEY IS SET ASIDE FOR IMPROVEMENTS RESULT OF SUFFRAGE

When women won the right to vote the good roads forces of the country received "en bloc" its biggest army of supporters in history. Since equal suffrage has been in effect the better highways cause has been enriched by $356,000,000—this amount being voted for road improvement by the electors of eight states at the recent elections.

By means of a cylindrical attachment at the back of his car, which ends in an ear piece close to him, the driver of a heavy motor truck can now hear other traffic approaching from behind.

ENGLISH JOURNAL PRAISES U. S. AUTO

ESSEX IS DECLARED TO BE BRIGHTEST AND LIVELIEST
BY BRITISH EXPERT

It is a rare thing when an English motor journal devotes any space to praising the merits of an American-built car, but in a recent issue of the British Motor Journal Autocar we find an interesting opinion by S. F. Edge, who is a recognized authority. Few men outside of America have attained such an international reputation in the motor car industry. Commenting on one American car, he says:

"Another of the five cars I used during the last few weeks was one I cannot help mentioning, the four-cylindered Essex, with an R. A. C. rating of 18.4 h. p. It is an American production, with absolutely the brightest, liveliest little engine I have ever found in an American car; in fact, this motor might really have had a Coatalen or a Pomeroy as its sponsor. Quite outside the engine's merits, however, the whole car is good, pleasant to use, and striking. The steering is light and easy; the springing is good; the brakes are good; in fact, everything to do with its driving is most satisfactory. The price charged, too, is very reasonable for what is given, by comparison with the prices of other cars.

Has Ability to Climb Hills

"The ability of the Essex to climb hills on top-speed, and yet give one a comfortable forty-five miles per hour with four people up, is unequalled in my experience of four-cylindered cars of same engine-dimensions. Is it really surprising that one can still fall across such good cars, quite unexpectedly. I heard of the Essex through a friend who often tells me of swans which turn out to be geese; but I ignore his exaggerations, because there is generally at least one swan-like attribute about anything he commends, and I like enthusiasm, even when it is not altogether disinterested. But in this case my friend had certainly not overstated the facts, and I was most intrigued to find an American 'four' of such flexibility, liveliness and substance, notwithstanding its quite moderate all-on weight.

"The next day I had a good long trip on a British-built car of about the same seating capacity, but with a slightly larger engine. Although in some matters the British car's design was the better (or perhaps I can more justly say the better in my eyes), its road performance was not to be compared. In hill-climbing, for instance, the home-built car was always a speed (or gear combination) inferior to the Essex. To pick-up after slackening of speed one simply had to change down, whereas the Essex was still quite happy on its top-speed."

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD GIVES AID

ORGANIZATION HEAD DECLARES
AUTO INDUSTRY RECEIVES
MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT

Persons engaged in the automobile industry are receiving a good deal of encouragement from the attitude of the federal reserve board toward the industry, as expressed by W. C. P. Harding, president of the board, in an address at Cleveland recently. The following are significant extracts:

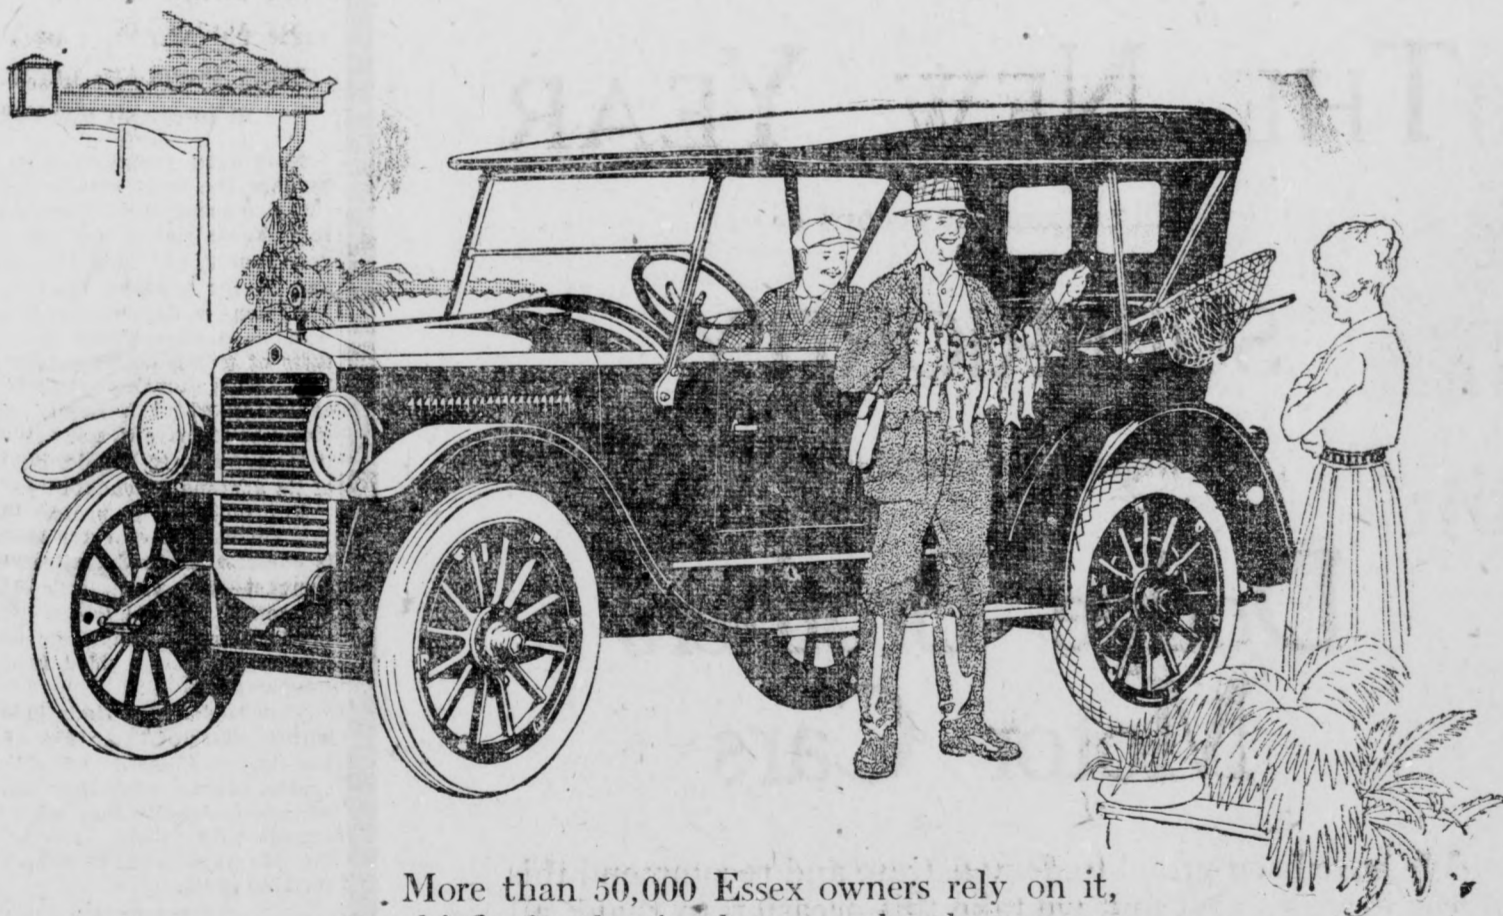

"This is the whole proposition: There has been nothing done by the federal reserve board and in most cases nothing has been done by any federal reserve bank that reflects in any manner upon one of the great industries of the country. It would be a very serious thing for any body of men to undertake to make an attack upon or to destroy a business that is as firmly rooted and which has so many of the elements of essentiality as your business (motor cars and accessories) has, and I want to assure you that as far as the federal reserve board is concerned no such attempts have been made.

"I have been a banker, and if I were a banker today this would be my policy, regardless of whether this industry were essential to the particular locality in which I might be located.

"I would look out for my good customers. If a dealer in automobiles brought a lot of paper for me to discount, if I were satisfied with the solvency of the dealer, with the volume of his indorsement, if he did not wish an excessive line of credit out of proportion to the average balance carried with me or out of proportion to the credit which I might feel I should grant to merchants and other lines of industry which were dependent upon my institution for credit support, I would take his offering.

ESSEX

More than 50,000 Essex owners rely on it, chiefly for the simple reason they have never encountered a situation of which it was not master.

But they consider also its famous records. Four different Essex cars each broke the former Trans-continental record between San Francisco and New York, a distance of 3347 miles. The fastest time was 4 days, 14 hours, 43 minutes. And Essex also set the world's 50-hour speedway record of 3037 miles. No car ever equalled that.

Do not such achievements entitle it to the utter confidence in which men hold it?

HOW CHINESE TOOK TO FIRST BATTERY

GLENDALE WILLARD MAN TELLS STORY AND THEN GOES ON AND RELATES MORAL

"Have you heard the story of how the first storage battery was received in China?" asked E. W. Cizek, Willard service station representative of this section.

"Well," he chuckled, "when some delegates of the great Chinese proletariat examined the mysterious black box for the first time and saw it bubbling and simmering and acting fussy and excited like, they rubbed their heads together and decided it was alive with spirits.

"As the story was told me, it was unanimously approved to give the thing a strong injection of hot tea to keep it quiet. While in the act of doing so one sage-like Celestial came in contact with a live connection and set up a yell that put every tom-tom in the kingdom to shame. Again the heads bumped together, in conference. This time the decision was that the box was central headquarters for half a hundred oriental devils.

Story Conveys Moral

"I've told this story because it conveys a moral. You cannot dispossess an oriental of the belief that there are certain earthly possessions that are devil-possessed, any more than you can convince some skeptical Americans that by giving the storage battery a little attention he will prolong its life considerably.

"Although I conduct a Willard service station, my chief purpose is not to sell a man a new battery but to render efficient service at all times on questions pertaining to batteries old and new regardless of what they are. If motorists will insist on getting the last ounce of energy out of their old batteries they will know, when they purchase a new battery, that they have been playing the game as it should be played."

TERRITORY LIMITS ON FORD REMOVED

DEALERS ARE PERMITTED TO SEARCH FOR BUSINESS WHERE THEY WILL

Ford dealers and salesmen throughout the country are out in the field with no territory limits, free to find prospects where they will. Such was the word received by the Los Angeles branch of the Ford Motor company from headquarters in Detroit. Similar word was, also, received by the authorized dealers neighboring Los Angeles.

The new ruling does away with all restrictions which have hitherto been placed on dealers, regarding territory which they were authorized to cover, and gives them the opportunity of going over occasionally into neighborhood pastures if they look greener. The ruling is expected to create a good-sized turmoil among the Ford dealers at first and to increase the activity of both dealers and salesmen in their respective territories to prevent outside salesmen from getting their prospects.

Heretofore there was one or more authorized Ford dealer in each district and no dealer was allowed to work outside his district. Thus Los Angeles had fifteen authorized dealers who confine their activities to this district, while other cities had their quotas. Under the new management, a Los Angeles dealer may send a representative to Venice, for instance, or the Venice dealer invade Los Angeles. A Long Beach dealer may show up here bright and early some morning and go after prospects here, or a Los Angeles representative may spend a vacation in San Diego selling cars outside his customary territory. In fact, there seems no limit under the new management, a free-for-all scramble on the part of the Ford dealers having been instituted.

Propose Gentleman's Agreement

It is expected, however, that the Ford dealers will have a gentleman's agreement and will not transgress on each other's territories. The Ford company, also, will not tolerate any dealer establishing sales and service depots in neighboring cities.

That the ruling will make a more intensive rivalry among the dealers and will install more "pep" into the salesmen was the belief expressed by B. L. Graves, manager of the Los Angeles branch of the Ford Motor company. It was said that one reason for the new ruling was the fact that dealers sometimes left portions of their territories unworked, which, under possibility of competition from some other dealer, would be better looked after. Frequent discussions and disputes have also arisen between dealers over boundary lines, which will come to an end by the new ruling.

EXERCISE CARE ON STREETS, IS SLOGAN

CAMPAIGNS ARE UNDER WAY TO CUT DOWN NUMBER OF ACCIDENTS

Automobile and other street accidents have become so numerous in many cities that campaigns have been commenced to teach the public, pedestrians as well as drivers of vehicles, the wisdom of exercising care on the public streets.

Investigations of accidents on the streets have developed that a large per cent of them is avoidable; that they are the result of carelessness on the part of the driver of the vehicle or the pedestrian, who is the worst sufferer when a collision occurs.

Men and women rush across the streets or between street cars and vehicles, apparently without any thought of the dangers they face in doing so. Many persons can be seen leaving a street car at the rear door and crossing the street behind the car, thereby running the risk of being struck by a car passing on the "blind" side.

Automobile drivers are not blameless in the matter. Many of them take chances in rushing across a street ahead of a street car or another automobile, all for the evident purpose of saving a few seconds, as if the saving of time justified them in running the risk of being struck.

Even without the aid of a traffic officer at the street crossing, travel would adjust itself if every person exercised good judgment in crossing. "Go with the traffic" is advice which may be followed with safety under almost every condition.

The drivers of vehicles are blamed for many more accidents than should be charged to them. Pedestrians have a responsibility which they should not attempt to evade. It is much easier for the individual to wait a few seconds than it is for the driver of an automobile to stop to prevent striking a person who has rushed into the middle of the street in thoughtless haste.

Every person, driver or pedestrian who uses the streets has it in his power to aid in making the streets safe for all.

Man o' War, America's wonder race-horse, is transported around the country in a specially constructed motor van. It has two stalls and another horse is always sent along for company.

2600 ROAD SIGNS PLACED

Approximately 2600 standard signs have been placed along the Lincoln highway from the Delaware river at the New Jersey-Pennsylvania state line to the Missouri river, separating Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Omaha, Neb. The road crew spent four months covering a total of 1309 miles placing the markers.

During the first six months of 1920, 1302 motorists were killed at grade crossing in the United States.

MONTANANS LIKE TO TOUR.

Records kept by gate attendants of Yellowstone National Park as to the number of motor vehicles visiting the park this season show Montana furnished more auto tourists than any other state. The total number of cars which entered from all states for 1920 was 13,502.

In 1919 Canada produced 4,000 motor vehicles. It is estimated that production this year will be fully 35 per cent greater.

Best of 22

The Eldorado Stage Co. of Los Angeles tested 22 leading makes on 12-passenger Packard buses. Not a tire was found to match the Millers in that extreme service.

Some Costly Mistakes

Men are Making on Tires

Men who buy tires on a guess, or on claims, are making some costly mistakes.

Large tire users make tests and comparisons. And the results in late years are amazing.

Hudson Taxi Co. of Detroit, for instance, made a long test on Miller Cords. And the average was 15,000 miles.

Miller dealers get hundreds to compare Miller mileage with others. And they find an increased mileage of 50 per cent to 75 per cent.

Large truck users are comparing Miller Cords, passenger type, with all others. And they are coming in large numbers to Millers.

California stage lines are using Millers after million-mile tests with many rivals.

The Way to Know

At the Miller factory over 1,000 tires yearly are worn out in tests and comparisons.

They constantly prove that Miller is the best tire built.

In extreme rear-wheel tests they require an average of 15,000 miles on Cords.

They prove that the new Miller tread outwears the best of others by 25 per cent.

Such tires should be tested by every owner of a car. See what they give you. Compare with any tire on opposite rear wheels.

Miller experts, in late years, have doubled average tire mileage. Old-times figures do not apply today.

You will fix new requirements for your tires when you try a Miller. Do it now.

WAY IS CLEARED

CITY WATER SYSTEM TO BE IMPROVED, AS RESULT OF
ACTION BY TRUSTEES

City officials and others expressed themselves as pleased over the fact that important action is being taken to improve the city's water system, as outlined in The Evening News last Thursday, when the board of trustees, in a series of resolutions, voted on estimated expenditures totaling $146,841.50. The expenditures come from the $260,000 bond issue.

"The closing of the negotiations for the purchase of the Grand View reservoir site," said T. W. Watson, city manager, today, "and the Verdugo road reservoir site by the board cleared the way for the action taken calling for bids for the construction of practically all of the improvements to the water system contemplated except the pressure main leading from the Verdugo reservoir to the development works in the Verdugo canyon. The development works in Verdugo canyon which will consist of wells and pumps to intercept the under-flow about the north line of tract 250 will be delayed somewhat pending further negotiations with the owners of water rights in Verdugo canyon as to the division of the surface flow and also as to the disposition of water that might be developed by these works."

Report by City Manager Is Filed

On October 28, City Manager Watson submitted a lengthy report to the board of trustees in reference to the water system, regarding the bond issue of November 12, 1918, when the issue of $260,000 was authorized, and also suggesting a plan of procedure, which included the purchase of the sites for the Verdugo canyon and Grand View reservoirs, adoptions of plans and specifications and the advertising for bids.

The action of the city trustees last Thursday night in ordering by resolutions the securing of the sites and the advertising for bids for construction work closely follows the city manager's recommendations and the bids for the construction work will be opened and considered at the meeting of the trustees on January 13, according to present plans.

The plans and specifications for the proposed work have been prepared by Harry Lynch, public service department engineer, and have been approved by the board of trustees.

REALTY BOARD

MEETING WILL BE HELD AND REPORT SUBMITTED BY

PRESIDENT GUTHRIE

Shortly after the first of the year, a meeting of the Glendale Real Estate association will be held, it was stated today by E. P. Hayward, secretary of the organization, for the purpose of hearing a report from Charles B. Guthrie, delegate to the state convention of realty men held recently in Los Angeles.

Mr. Guthrie is president of the Glendale association and was named as a delegate to the state convention. He attended the various sessions and will, it is expected, have a number of interesting things to report to the local members.

Another matter to be considered by the local association is the financing of the information bureau maintained in the First National bank.

Bureau Gives Information

The bureau was installed by the association to give information to tourists and others concerning Glendale and Miss Halvorson is in charge, answering a number of inquiries every day, as well as giving out literature.

The local realty association has not sufficient funds to further finance the bureau, it is stated, and a committee has been appointed to suggest a way to continue the work, which, it is explained, is for the general benefit of Glendale. It is probable the committee will make a report at the next meeting of the association.

CIVIL SERVICE

EXAMINATION TO BE GIVEN

POSTAL DEPARTMENT

The United States postoffice department will conduct civil service examination on January 15 for the selection of new appointees in the railway mail service. The entrance salary is $1,600 a year. Both men and women are permitted to take the examination. While the postoffice has found it is not practical to employ women on mail cars, they will be given employment at certain terminal stations. Those interested in the examination are invited to ask the postal authorities for further information.
